Orange Public School District Spelling Bee Championship

Contributed by Karen Harris, Director English Language Arts

The Orange Public School District held its annual Spelling Bee on March 16. Students from each of the district's school's, grades 1 – 7, competed for grade level championship and the district's overall championship. The students competed well, going deep into the Scripps suggested lists, an effort led by the 1st and 2nd graders who went well beyond 20 rounds.

Taking top prize and overall winner of the competition was Jayden Moinvil, 5th grader from Park Avenue School. Second place went to Brinny Morocho, 7th grader from Rosa Parks Community School. Tied for overall 3rd place were Riley Stewart, 3rd grader Forest Street School and Diana Tenezaca, 6th grader from Rosa Parks Community School. Grade level winners:

Grade	Student	School
1	Donald Salaam III	Rosa Parks Community School
2	Ymani Matthews	Rosa Parks Community School
3	Riley Stewart	Forest Street Community School
4	Melissa Hercules	Oakwood Avenue Community School
5	Jayden Moinvil	Park Avenue School
6	Diana Tenezaca	Rosa Parks Community School
7	Brinny Morocho	Rosa Parks Community School

Among the many parents and community members that came out to support the students were Mayor Dwayne D. Warren, School Board President Lydell Carter, and former School Board Member Mr. Israel.

Orange Adult School

Submitted by Barry Devone, Community Engagement Officer

The Orange Community School (OCS) Adult School Spring 2019 Semester classes began on March 14. Ms. Tera Phipps, technology coordinator at Orange Preparatory Academy kicked off her “Technology Basics” class, being offered on Thursdays through May 30. Her class, held at Orange Preparatory Academy, was assisted by five students from Orange Prep and Orange High School: Rebecca Thermidor (9th grade), Shedeline Pierre Louis (9th grade), Esmeralda Benoit (9th grade), Abraham Zamora (9th grade), Towon Holmes (10th grade).

The catalog of classes include Adult ESL, Introduction to Technology, Paying for Your Education, Getting the Squeeze on Orange: Civic Engagement, and Financial Literacy, including how to complete a First Time Homebuyer down payment certificate. Additionally, the Orange Adult School is partnering with Montclair State University’s Continuing and Professional Education Department to offer a select number of online courses from its catalog. Most classes will be held at Rosa Parks Community School. For more information, and to register, visit the district’s website at www.orange.k12.nj.us.

Teen Forum – How to Survive High School

The Teen Forum – How to Survive High School was held on March 12 at Orange Preparatory Academy. The evening was eventful with a large participation from Orange Preparatory Academy and Orange High School students. Nurse Laura Sacks, working with Orange High School's "The Zone" and Orange Prep's "The Space" created an evening of thoughtful insights and perspectives for attendees.

The evening began with a panel discussion led by Ms. Jada Gore, school counselor at Orange High School. The panel consisted of graduating seniors, representing student government and athletics:

- Felicia Adams
- Schundnax Emmanuel
- Muhammad Haque
- Akaylia Richards
- Tino Stephens
- Nigil Thomas

Pictured (above): Scenes from the Teen Forum.

They gave their opinions of several topics, intended to address some of the issues facing students today. Two of the questions Ms. Gore asked the students were:

1. A typical school year is 180 days. $180 \text{ days} \times 4 \text{ "School" Years} = 720 \text{ days}$. A lot can happen in 720 days. Finish this sentence: "When I started high school, nobody told me that _____!"
 - a. Underclassmen: At the end of your 720 days, what do you hope to have accomplished?
 - b. Seniors: As you're getting close to the end of your 720 days, what is the one thing you wish you had spent more time on before you graduate?
2. In 2018 Pew Research Center did a survey with teens. They studied teens and their viewpoints on what caused them to feel anxious and depressed.

IN THEIR STUDY: They found that 7 in 10 teens see anxiety and depression as significant issues among their peers and within their communities. Among the pressures teens face:

1. Academics - 61% Feel Pressure To Get "Good Grades"
2. Physical Attributes - 29% Feel Pressure To "Look Good"
3. Social Status - 28% Feel Pressure To "Fit In"
4. Well Rounded - 21% Feel Pressure To Do "Extracurricular Activities" And Be "Good" At Sports.
 - How relatable are these "Pressures" in Orange?
 - What "Pressures" do you think are present for OHS students?
 - What does being a "perfect student" mean?

The students underscored several key points that there is a stereotype that teachers don't care, when in fact they are caring; procrastination is a detriment to your success; school can be filled with dramas and fights but that doesn't define the overall experience; all realize that GPAs are important to your future success and your friends will come and go.

After the panel discussion, members of The Zone and The Space led groups of students, separated by underclassmen and seniors to complete a time management exercise, where a group outlined tasks/times to achieve a desired outcome (e.g., is there time for social media, if homework must be completed and student must get up earlier than usual?).

Students also experienced "Laughing Yoga" from a certified instructor. They learned how to combine laughter exercises with playful movements to help reduce stress and promote happiness.

The forum was a learning experience for teens in attendance and included raffle prizes and pizza and refreshments. The supporting staff included:

The staff at The Space:

- Joy Simeon (Program Manager)
- David Ortega (Youth Development Specialist)
- Assata Barnes (Youth Employment Specialist)
- Erica L. Woyce (Mental Health Clinician)

The staff at The Space:

- Shalice Foster (Program Coordinator)
- Rishannabel Ubiera (Mental Health Clinician)
- Tracey Whittington (Youth Development Specialist)

Pictured: Scenes from the Teen Forum.

Malika Berry, school social worker and her mentees, Berry's Butterflies, attended and assisted, as did Joel Lemke, advisor to the Rho Kappa honor society and members. Tera Phipps, technology coordinator, also supported the forum, along with student Peer Leaders and Rachel Bland, the Community Organizer, at HANDS, Inc. and the Director of the Healthy Orange Coalition.

OHS Mighty Marching Tornadoes Win Best in Show

Contributed by Donna Sinisgalli, Supervisor of Visual and Performing Arts

Newark's 2019 Saint Patrick's Day Parade, featuring the 7th Annual High School Band Competition, with marching bands, drum lines, and color guards from across New Jersey took place on March 15.

The Orange High School Mighty Marching Tornadoes are congratulated for winning Newark Parade-Competition: Best in Show! "John Clerie, Peter Abazia, the advisors, and students have put in long hours of hard work -- this is their reward," said Supervisor of Visual And Performing Arts Donna Sinisgalli, "A job well done to all!"

Orange High Students Attend International Women's Day Celebration

Contributed by Mohammed Abdelaziz, Assistant Principal, Orange High School

Student athletes, Amaya Whitehall and Caroline Prophete were selected to represent Orange High School at the International Women's Day event sponsored by the NJ School Development Authority (SDA) on March 7.

They joined other student honorees from across the state in an inspiring day listening to SDA's CEO Lizette Delgado Polanco and guest speakers. They were excited to hear from the women working on Orange High School's new renovations.

Girls Night In

Submitted by Malika Berry, School Social Worker and Berry's Butterflies Advisor, Orange Prep Academy

The 3rd Annual Girls Night In, held on March 15, was a huge success. Fifty-six girls attended the event that provided them with Yoga and Meditation with Ms. Montelegre from Orange High school (OHS), a series of workshop rotations that allowed each girl to attend all sessions and a closing journaling gathering. Each student received one of two journal books. One titled 52 Lists of Happiness that was given to seniors and juniors and Start Where You Are for the underclassmen.

The sessions were as follows:

- Healthy Grab And Go Snacks, with Mrs. Romero of Orange Prep Academy (OPA)
- Road Map To Emotional Success, with Ms. Phipps, of OPA
- Affirmation Mirror (Mirror, Mirror), with Mrs. Foster of The Zone, OPA
- Create Your Own Facial Care Products, with Ms. Key of OPA
- Girl Talk - A Detailed Discussion On Female Hygiene, with Ms. Desanges of OPA

Additional staff volunteer and alumni members supported this event: The staff included: Mrs. Sacks, Ms. Tanner, Ms. Stainfil, Mrs. Curry, Mrs. Whittington and Mrs. Serafino (OHS). Alumni included Princess ('16) and India Lockhart ('17), along with Elif Kucuk, a Seton Hall intern. Mr. Stoessel, of OPA, is also thanked for his donation.

New Seen: The Artists of Orange High School

At the New Seen: The Artists of Orange High School gallery exhibit, student work is prominently displayed, with several pieces for sale at the ValleyArts Community Gallery, located at 400 S. Jefferson Street in Orange. The art teachers at Orange High School, Mr. Nate Brown, Mrs. Shana Falda, Mr. Christopher Cosmillo, and Mrs. Meg Guerriero selected the work from among their talented students to be exhibited. On March 7, opening night, many of the artist and supporting family and friends were present to admire the displays.

Celebrity Read at Rosa Parks Community School

On March 8, celebrity readers gathered at Rosa Parks Community School, a participating school in the United Way of Essex and West Hudson's annual reading event. It was also a day to celebrate the birthday of treasured children's author Dr. Seuss, as part of the nationwide Read Across America Day.

Some of the celebrity readers were Orange police officers, parents, Interim Superintendent of Schools Ronald C. Lee, Director of English Language Arts Karen Harris, Teacher Coach Delia Abreu, city officials, Mr. Copeland and Mr. Mobley. There were readings for pure entertainment, life lessons, history and lively interaction with students promoting the love of reading. Door decorations and displays supported many of Dr. Seuss's best work.

Learn Bridge in a Day

It's not too late to register for Learn Bridge in a Day at Park Avenue School

The Orange Education Foundation and the Park Avenue School Bridge Club are sponsoring Learn Bridge in a Day (LBIAD), on Saturday, April 13, from 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m., in the Park Avenue School Library. Tickets are $30 per person, (now through March 31) and $50 per person in April. Ticket price includes lesson, bridge manual, breakfast, lunch, snacks, "Tricky Tray," and door prizes.

LBIAD is a nationally acclaimed workshop that is a fast, fun way to learn the basics of bridge. The program, intended to expose a wide audience to this challenging, stimulating game, will be taught by Ms. Patty Tucker, of Whirlwind Bridge, developer of the program, from Atlanta.

The ACBL District 3 Youth Bridge Coordinator, Unit 140 Education Liaison and Treasurer of the Orange Education Foundation, Ms. Barbara Clark, is organizing this event along with Dr. Denise Harlem, technology coordinator and bridge club advisor at Park Avenue School. Proceeds from the event will help fund the Park Avenue Bridge Club's trip to the Youth North American Bridge Championships in Las Vegas, this July.

"Bridge benefits children mentally, academically and socially," said Ms. Clark. She is hopeful that there will be a big turnout for this program on April 13.

The bridge clubs at Park Avenue School and Oakwood Avenue Community School have previously participated in Sectional, Regional and National Youth Bridge Championships in Atlanta, Las Vegas, Chicago and Toronto.

To register for LBIAD, interested individuals can contact Dr. Denise Harlem, technology coordinator and bridge club advisor, Park Avenue School, at harlemde@orange.k12.nj.us. Registration information can be found on the district website at www.orange.k12.nj.us. See flyer below.
