Friday-Saturday: I will give either a science or social studies homework to complete over the weekend. Students should also continue to work on iRead and iReady!

This week in science we are observing rocks and discussing how you can sort rocks. Think of a category (rocks, leaves, art supplies, paper, writing utensils, etc) and think about the different ways you can sort these objects.

For example: If I choose dishes I find in my house I can sort them into categories such as: big, small, round, flat, deep, shallow, white, black, etc. Our categories are: size, texture, color, pattern, shape)
