

OHS & OPA Schedule Phase I and II of the Back to School Plan

During Phase I and II students and teachers are on a half day scheduled for synchronous instruction from 8:30 am-12:30 pm Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday with Wednesday being designated for Office Hours and Professional Development for Staff and a Do Day (asynchronous instruction) for students.

The only difference between Phase I and II is both teachers and students are total virtual in their own homes during Phase I and during Phase II teachers will actually be in the building in assigned classrooms teaching virtually while students will be in their own homes. Each period in both phases are 45 minutes in length. One group of teachers will teach from their assigned classrooms on Monday and Tuesday and the second group of teachers will teach from assigned classrooms on Thursday and Friday.
