

There was a rat.

There was a mat.

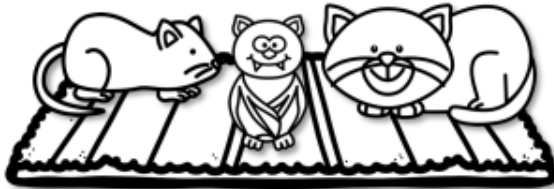

Then came a bat.

The rat sat on a mat.

Then came a cat.

On the mat they sat!

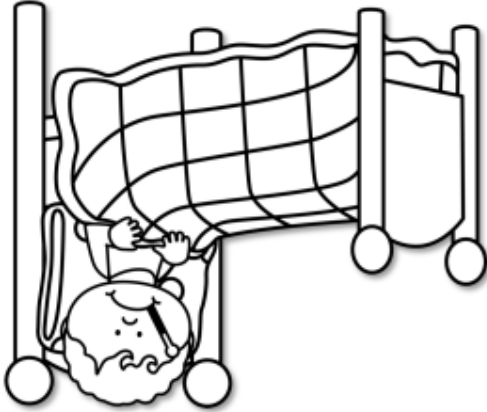

at
family

The Rat and the Mat

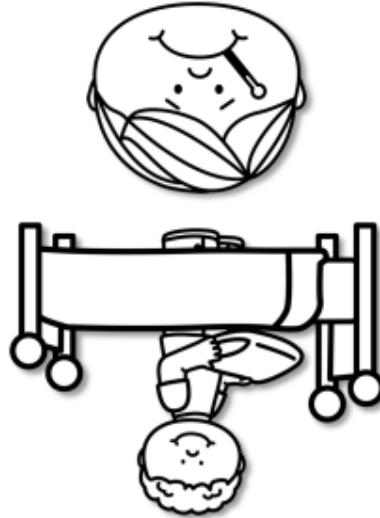

Read by:

Ted is in bed.

Ted, go to bed.

Ted is red.

Ted got out of bed.

Mom fed Ted.

Ted is not red.

ed
family

Ted

Read by:

I will dig big for my wig.

I will dig big for the pig.

I will dig big for the
rig.

I will dig big for my
fig.

I like to dig.

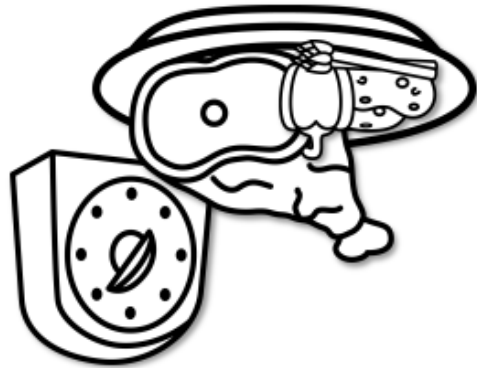

ig
family

Dig Big

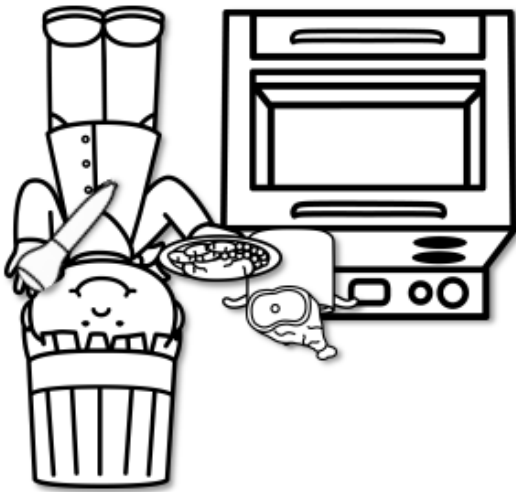

Read by:

It takes a long time
to make.

Have you had pot
roast?

Then add juice to it.

Put some beef in a
pot.

When it is time, pair
it with toast.

Pot roast is yummy!

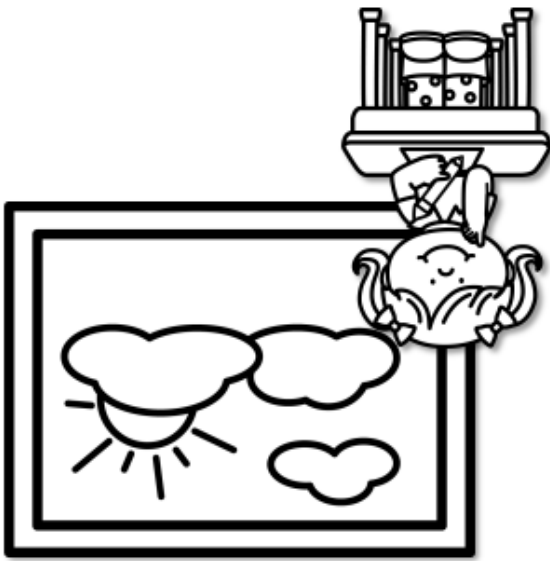

mixed
review

Pot Roast

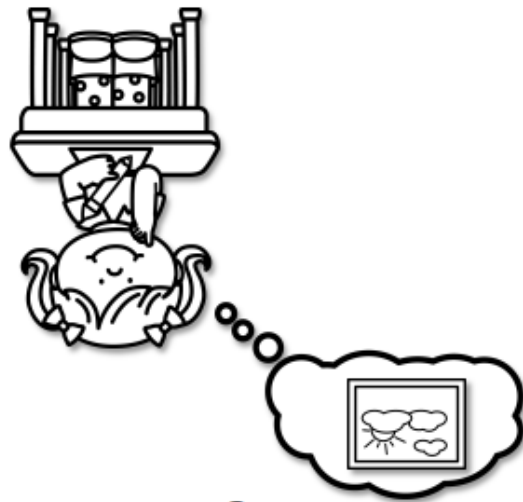

Read by:

It is very blue.

I ask this any time I
look at it.

It wants to know why
the sky is blue.

My brain asks many things.

But why is the sky
blue?

Do you know why?

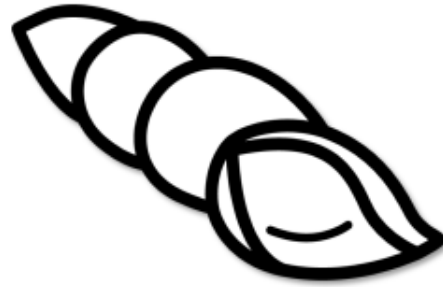

mixed
review

The Sky

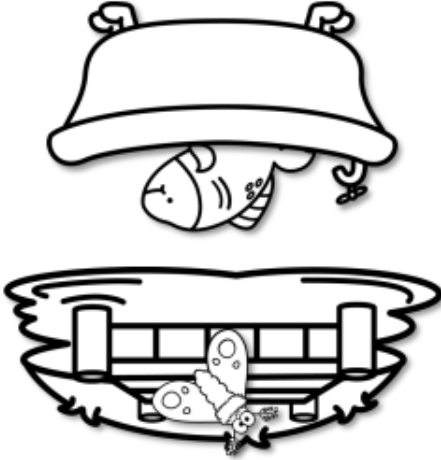

Read by:

Will this shell make one?

What can make a
thud?

Will the fish in the bath?

Will the moth on the dock?

Will a rock make a thud?

mixed
digraphs

Thud

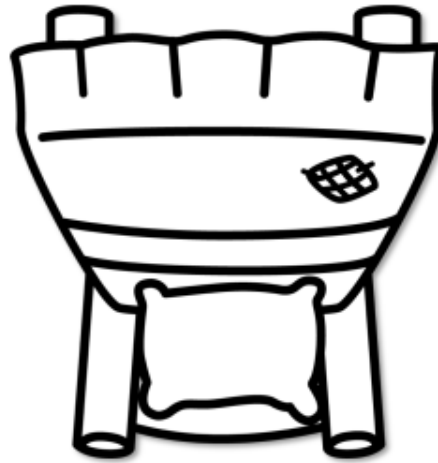

Read by:

It has a duck and a ship on it.

My bed has a sham on it.

There is much on it.

That is my bed.

mixed
digraphs

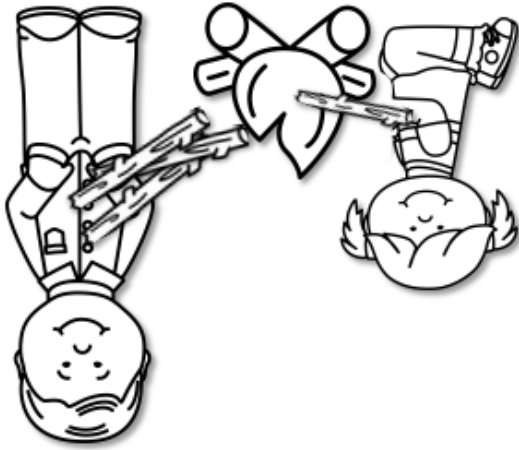

My Bed

I like each of these on my bed.

Read by:

My dad lights the wood.

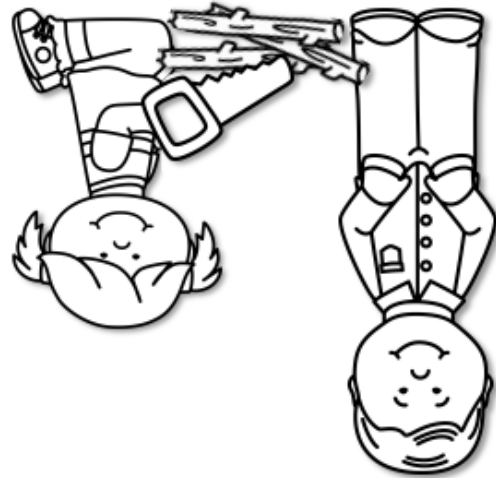

Then we hoist it into the pit.

We sit back as the moon comes out.

The glow from the moon and fire is nice.

We saw the wood first.

At night, we like to make a fire.

mixed review

At Night

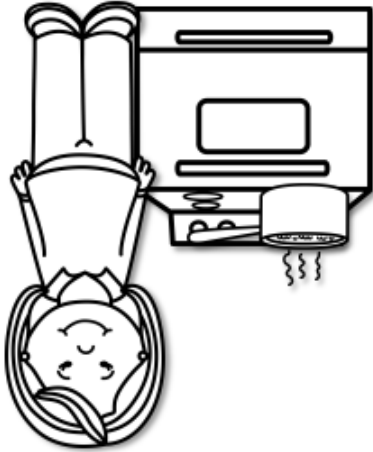

Read by:

First, she chops up
the food.

My mom will make
some lunch for us.

After it cooks for a bit, we can eat.

Then she brings the
water to a boil.

My mom hands me a spoon.

I chow down on my lunch.

mixed
review

Lunch

Read by:

She points to it, and
he gets it for her.

There Joy finds the one she wants.

She pays for it with her coins.

Now Joy has her new toy.

She walks to the toy
shop.

This is Joy and she wants a new toy.

mixed
review
oi/oy

Joy's New Toy

Read by: